MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

An Awful Tragedy. When the two daughters of Mrs. John Bomley, wife of a farmer near Arkoe, Nodaway county, returned home from school they found their mother lying dead in the ton, Mo., fell from his balloon at the kitchen, with her brains beaten out, and signs of a desperate encounter in several rooms. It is supposed three weeks of steady rain the sun that a tramp found Mrs. Bomley alone with her babe, and attempted an assault. Indications point to the struggle having been first made upstairs, where broken furniture tells the tale of a desperate fight. From there the participants descended to the first floor, and finally reached the kitchen, where Mrs. Bomley seized a stovelift and defended herself. Wounds the Coliseum, 50,000 people attended about her head and body show that her assailant completed his murderous work with a stovelid. All the rooms where the parties fought were covered with blood and tell of the desperate struggle the woman made for her life and honor. Mr. Bomley was away from home during the day.

BRYAN ACCEPTS

The Nomination Tendered by the People's Party—Sees No Cause for Disagreement Between the Various Parties Which Have Nominated Him, as the Goal for Which All Strive is Free Silver.

Sr. Louis, Oct. 4.-William J. Bryan yesterday gave out his letter accepting the populist nomination. It reads as follows: Lincoln, Neb., October 3, 1896.

Hon. William V. Allen, Chairman, and Others,
Members of the Notification Committee of the People's Party: GENTLEMEN: The nomination of the pecple's party for the presidency of the United-States has been tendered me in such a gener-ous spirit and upon such honorable terms that I am able to accept the same without departing from the platform adopted by the demo-cratic national convention at Chicago. I fully appreciate the breadth of patriotism which has actuated the members of the peo-ple's party, who, in order to consolidate the entiment in favor of bimetallism, have been willing to go outside of party, lines and sup-port as their candidate one already nominated by the democratic party and also by the silver ity of the democratic party and a considerable yet ever since the organization of the people's party its members have unanimously supported such coinage as the only means of restoring bimetallism. LATER AND WORSE Reports from the Scene of the Great.

Southern Storm-The Death Roll Grow JACKSONVILLE, Fia., Oct. 4.-Reports from the remote sections where the storm visited increase the number of dead. At Doublesink, in Levy county, a large settlement, nearly every house was swept away, and Miss Jennie Hayfield was killed. Mr. Hayfield and several children are seriously hurt.

J. D. Stockman's house was blown down, and he was caught in the falling timbers and painfully hurt. Nearly every house in Lafayette county has been destroyed. Nothing isleft of Mayo, the county seat. One man and a woman were killed there by a failing tree. William Mayo reports that almost nothing is left of the

At Shell Mound, a great pleasure resort, the bodies of a party of 11, fivemen, three children and three women, were found strewn on the shore along the river, close together, which would indicate that they were simultaneously killed by the tidal wave. Some of those who went down to Cedar Keys and returned yesterday say that in addition to the 11 bodies. named above, eight others have been found on the beach. Scores of aponers and fishermen are still missing, and the probability is they have been drowned. The details were meager at first, and gave a faint idea of the devastation that had been wrought by the storm and the destitution of hundreds of people along the path of the tempest. From Cedar Keys, on the gulf, almost to the shores of Jacksonville come heart-rending stories of ruin. The storm not only laid the forests low, but swept away residences and outbuildings and left hundreds, if notthousands, of people without food or shelter. The condition is one of actual
